The enemies never expected this and could not see clearly what was happening around them. Sumantra came like wind and in the wink of an eye snatched Amara and flew away with him to his place. Further, he taught him the charms for attaining a charming voice that even the cupid would prefer, curing the snakebites and poisonous effects, overcoming the dangers from wild animals, controlling natural elements like flying against gravity, causing fire, flood, rain, tempest etc and stopping them, curing diseases, and attaining the desired form and shape....
