

Working with Disaffected Students: Why Students Lose Interest in School and What We Can Do About it

By Kathryn Riley, Elle Rustique-Forrester

SAGE Publications Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Working with Disaffected Students: Why Students Lose Interest in School and What We Can Do About it, Kathryn Riley, Elle Rustique-Forrester, 'This is an extremely readable volume and those who work in this field will find themselves nodding in agreement. It is hoped that this is not just read by those like-minded educationalists but reaches a broad readership. It gives a wide-angle view of the problem of disaffection, which cannot fail to cause concern. It is hoped that the recent proliferation of government initiatives - learning mentors, 14-19 alternative curricula, and Connexions, to name but a few - will soon begin to solve some of the problems highlighted in this study' - "Emotional & Behavioural Difficulties". "Working with Disaffected Students" is an interesting, informative and accessible book which should appeal to the target audience of practitioners and policy makers. The recommendations in this book are sound and highly relevant to the target audience. Everyone, particularly the disaffected young people themselves, should benefit from sound research presented in such an engaging and accessible way' - "British Journal Educational Studies". 'The book stresses the importance of early (and real) inter-agency co-operation, and of good...
