Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Confessions of Faith and Formulas of Subscription in the Reformed Churches of Great Britain and Ireland Especially in the Church of Scotland: Being a Series of Lectures Delivered to Students of Church History in the Opening Days of Session 1906-7 (25th to 30th October, 1906) Gentlemen, It has been my custom in my opening lecture to pass in brief review the Church History of the previous summer; and I feel that this year, in the six months which have run out since we last met, much has been happening outside Christendom, on its ever-advancing border, in what for ages has been its special territory, as well as within the narrower circle of our own part of the Church, which may well send us to reflection and to our knees - in thankfulness, on the one hand, to the Divine Pilot of the Church, and, on the other hand, in prayer and vigil lest, in our anxiety to conciliate men, we should be found unfaithful to Him whom we confess, with S. Thomas, Our Lord and Our Goo. Outside of Christendom, we have heard, once more, of the pride and pretensions of the hoary paganisms of the Further East. In the Nearer East our attention has been called to a portentous revival of Mahomedan activity. News from the various Mission Fields tell, if of inadequate resources, yet of wonderful achievements.
