Lesbian: Faith - A lesbian love story Its for my niece, the woman said, leaning over the reception desk of Kathryns interior design shop. Its going to be her birthday soon. Shell be twenty-one. Her mother is paying, but she doesnt know about it yet. She tittered. Kathryn smiled at the woman and laughed politely. Do you have anything in mind A favorite color perhaps She likes red, but youre best off talking to her about it. I dont want to give you the wrong information. She laughed. I could do with talking to her. Can you ask her to come in The woman glanced at her watch. She was meant to be meeting me at twelve. Probably got carried away going around the shops. Best give her a ring. She pulled out her phone and called her niece. Shes on her way, the woman announced two minutes later. Kathryn had never been great at making small talk, so found this situation a bit awkward. The woman was trying to make conversation with her, but she just didnt know what...
