iUniverse, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . When a teenage girl finds herself at the brink of insanity she takes the plunge into what she believes is the answer to her loneliness and boredom. This South London girl, brought up within the confines of a run down council estate with an alcoholic mother, discovers the pleasures of freedom in more than one way when she arrives in Paris. In the world s most romantic city her dreams are fed with enticing flavors as she seeks to create these into the real world. Searching for her heart s dream man, she meets Michel, the manager of the bookshop where she is given employment. When they fall in love Mary envisions all her dreams will come true, holding on strong to this belief like she has been hypnotically entranced. After two years Michel starts the job he has always wanted giving Mary hope that the dream she has been waiting for will now arrive. Soon to see the truth to this belief Mary accepts the invitation of Sebastian, a persistent businessman, only to discover a world even less attractive than the one...
