John R. Kasich (chairman of the committee) presiding. Members present: Representatives Kasich, Hobson, Kolbe, Shays, Herger, Allard, Miller, Lazio, Smith of Michigan, Nussle, Shadegg, Sabo, Slaughter, Coyne, Orton, Pomeroy, Woolsey, Roybal-Allard, and Doggett. Chairman Kasich. Good morning. This morning, as hard as it is to believe, I guess we are heading back into the budget process again; and, to that end, we wanted to have a hearing this morning that talks about - I guess really in some respects, Martin, it almost goes back to the Reagan years when we talked about who best runs government; and you might recall Reagan was way out in terms of sending things back to the States. The fear was that if you send them back, they would not have the money. I am not particularly interested in sending things back to the States because they save money. I am interested in sending things back to the States because I am hoping that - and believe - that the closer the government is to the people, the better it is. Frankly, I am not real enamored with sending a whole lot back to the States, because they become bureaucratic pencil-pushers as much as they do in Washington; but I got a sense I can get my - I know where they live. So I have a better chance to affect them. But, frankly, even when you get...
