In his London gaol cell, Erik Kahn, the man arrested for the bomb that took the life of an Australian cricket player, receives word from a former Belgian lover, Delores Venders, and an escape is engineered. Kim Fairbanks is kidnapped from her hotel in Bangladesh on the eve of a 20/20 tournament and is ransomed by the kidnappers to secure Kahn s release. MI6 commander Trace Everingham is the man who organizes the release in the hope that Kahn can easily be taken again once Kim is found. Kahn and his cronies seem to be always one step ahead, even though Kim is eventually found. An enigmatic elderly Indian man, appears in Andrew and Kim s life and seems to follow their progress over the next few months. Andrew...
