Strong steady sales happen because of strategy, tactics, and mindset. Are you tired of feeling confused about the whole Indie Publishing business? How well does it work? Bearing in mind that our results may not be typical, we boosted our incomes to $10,000 per month using these easy-to-master techniques. How well you do depends on how well you write -- and how well you manage your investment in promoting your books. We may not be able to teach you how to write, but we certainly can teach you how to use simple math to boost your marketing efforts. Self-publishing has become a life changing industry for thousands of authors. Whether you write fiction or non-fiction, romance or self-help, stories about heroes in magical kingdoms or warriors in board rooms conquering Silicon Valley, there are people who would love to read your book. Do you know how to find these readers? This is a book that will answer the questions you ve not even thought of yet. Not knowing what you don t know to ask is what holds back most struggling authors. Isn t it time you take control? Honoree Corder is a non-fiction author and Brian D. Meeks makes his living in fiction. They both have consistent month after month sales and growth and are willing to share with you the concepts that don t make the blogs and podcasts. Earning five-figures month in and month out happens when you understand your readers beyond just that they gave your last book 5-stars. You ll learn: -The basic formulas you ll need to understand your results. -You ll learn...
