Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Some Aspects of the Philippine Question: An Address Delivered Under the Auspices of the Club, at Central Music Hall, Chicago, November 15, 1899 One is a knowledge of the facts involved; the other, the disposition and ability to interpret those facts correctly. In the present instance these two essentials are not altogether easy of attainment. Our great distance from the Philippine archipelago, and the unreliable character of much that finds its way into our local press concerning conditions there, make facts hard to obtain, while differences of race, training, and temperament between the Filipinos and ourselves make it difficult, if not impossible, for many of us to put ourselves in their place. Those who reason that under given circumstances these children of the tropics would feel as we do, will sooner or later fall into grievous error. While looking over newspaper comments on the preliminary report submitted to the President of the United States by the Commission of which I have the honor to be a member, I noted with interest a suggestion, evidently made in all sincerity, that if the Commissioners would only read the newspapers they would learn much that was new to them about the situation in the Philippines. Now I must admit that for many months I have been in a country where I could not readily avail myself of that wonderful institution, the great American daily; still I trust that my sojourn in the Philippine Islands has not been altogether without its compensating advantages. I notice that a professor at your great university here is reported to have said that the Commissioners might just as well have written their report...
