Excerpt from American Heroes on Mission Fields: Brief Missionary Biographies Her pride was severely tried by the circumstances in which she was placed at this early age. Hard discipline was mingled with these youthful experiences. Her pride, her love of ease and tasteful things, and her dislike of all that was coarse or vulgar, made many difficult places for her feet to tread. But amid the losses and adversities of her lot the Lord met and spoke to her soul and won her to himself, and she became thenceforth his loving and obedient child. She was about fourteen years of age when converted under the gospel preaching of Rev. J. T. Avery, the evangelist.
