

Homesteading the Soul: A Spiritual Apprenticeship with a Prairie Grandfather

By Terry Keepers

Keystone Court Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 390 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.8in. x 0.7in. Homesteading the Soul chronicles the remarkable relationship between a city boy and his prairie grandfather. The youngster finds wisdom, strength, and an appreciation of life's passages through mentorship with his grandfather, who guides by story and example. The old homesteader recounts adventures from his life: death by lightning, an epidemic, a lynching, and hereditary alcoholism. There are also lighter times including Sunday dinner, riding a combine, and a community hoedown. Each episode imparts revelations to the boy, though he doesn't understand their soul-making value until he is grown. As an adult, he explores the meanings of these experiences and their importance for others. Homesteading the Soul is heartwarming, edifying, and soul-nourishing. Compelling reading, it moves us to laughter, tears, and new understandings of our own lives. It celebrates the power of love as it explores the growth of the soul in a personal and captivating way. Keepers knows the value of a good parable and uses it well. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
