By Alex Atandi

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. With lots of love that is into the first page, strong feelings that transcends the warmth of people of strong emotions of love, ambitions that are ruined and mistakes that are made in life; whatever mistake it might be that makes life to change into an hangover that to pull away from is an impossible task; from the attachments that were in the foregone years: the bond, into the past emotional live, and whatever course as life change, new things are picked, yet it is hard to let go with that little obsession. Shall It Ever Dawn was first based on real life of a young person s affectionate instability. The very first passionate life that turns into a siege to alienate from as the false love cocoon breaks to expose what real life in the world is. And then years goes by, life shifts into responsible life with mature desires; life with challenges from finance to a search into a relationship that will secure the future generation. All around is restriction into achieving the desires of heart; relationship that goes beyond...
