With all the negative forces in our culture that undermine a parents efforts to raise a child into a successful adult, the job of parenting grows increasingly difficult. It is the hope of every loving parent that their children achieve success in their lives. Yet, many of us do not give them the proper tools to help them reach success. The Kids on Prosperity Lane offers a solution. This charming collection of short stories will give you a means of introducing these traits to your child in a fun and entertaining way. Jump into the world of Artie, Annie, Luke, Ned, and the rest of their friends as they confront the difficulties of childhood. Through The Kids on Prosperity Lane, your children will learn skills like setting goals, personal responsibility, determination, and persistence. By teaching these qualities at a young age, the chances of these traits becoming habits are much greater. Success means different things to different people. Whatever your childs definition of success is, give them the tools to achieve it! This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
