

Stop the Violence: Color Your Prison Walls with Love (Paperback)

By Dale Lee Gordon

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I wrote Stop the Violence after being in jail and prison. I saw all the terrible things happening and wanted to find a way to keep people from becoming convicts and direct them to God and the Bible. This book speaks of the many problems illegal drugs can create in our lives. There are serious problems that addictions bind so many in these chains. I wanted to write a book to teens and adults that would cause people to think before getting into drugs, alcohol, cigarettes, and the crimes that seem to come with addictions. Even pornography, and sex addictions can ruin marriages, families, and lives. When I was in prison I told one of my doctors I wanted to build a website and books that would help teens and adults and steer them away from addictive behaviors. They all laughed at me and told me I could never do that. For nearly two decades I ran into road block after road block being stopped at every turn. Now the turn is headed right straight to Jesus. Friend if you know someone...
