Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Eulogy on the Life and Character of General Andrew Jackson: Delivered at Bedford, Pa., July 28th, 1845 Fellow Citizens: We have met to pay our tribute of respect and admiration to the memory of a man who has, for nearly fifty years, filled a large space in the public eye, and whose character, for the last thirty years, has been the almost constant subject of discussion by this whole nation. His friends constituted a very large majority of the people, and on their lips his name was the most familiar topic of applause. In their eyes he was mighty in word and in deed. If he addressed their understandings, they were convinced by what they deemed his unanswerable reasoning; if he spoke to their hearts, their affections gushed forth in overflowing gratitude and veneration. In civil and in military life, he was, alike and at all times, the hero they loved and the chief they admired. This devoted attachment was, however, not universal. A large minority, not only respectable by its numbers, but formidable by...
