FRIENDING: REAL RELATIONSHIPS IN A VIRTUAL WORLD

IVP Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 187 pages. The notion of friendship is under broad review. A highly mobile and increasingly busy society--rootless, some might argue--means that most of our relationships cant depend solely on face-to-face contact to flourish. The increasing prominence of the virtual landscape--where the language of friendship has been co-opted to describe relationships ranging from intimate to meaningless--requires that we become fluent in ever-expanding relational technologies. Its never been easy to be a friend, but it...
