KNUT: THE LONE VIGILANTE

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Introducing Knut, a feel-good book about a small man destined to become a big folk hero. The reader looking for a tall, dark, and handsome hero might want to change their mind, after reading this book. Knut is sandy-haired and short, with a bit of a straggly handle-bar moustache, and his hair is just a bit thin on top, noticeable only if he removes his big white cowboy hat. Knut had always wanted to be a Policeman, but was three inches too short for regulations. This couldn't discourage a determined man, however. He believed he could whip guys six feet and over, if the need arose, so he decided to take fate into his own hands by forming his own one-man amateur police force. Now he patrols his small town in an old rusty station wagon, keeping everyone safe. Drop in and meet the gang at Lulu's Cafe, where most of the action begins. You'll love the characters. Many of them look like they just stepped off a Norman Rockwell cover painting. There's Mayor Gerken, as political as he is overweight, Otto Bersten, the deputy Sheriff, and his wife Verna (the prettiest biker-babe in town, who discovers the secret behind Cleopatra's beauty). Most of the town is populated with good folks, with just enough problems to keep Knut busy. Knut becomes the town's hero, after capturing three armed bank robbers single-handed. Lulu has a secret crush on him, and persuades him to place a sign on her cafe which reads KNUT EATS HERE. This book is where the fun begins Knut is just plain good old fashioned comedy. Will the fire department...
