She is a homosexual immigrant woman living in New York. She faced much discrimination in her life, and much disappointment in love. She had packed it in. She has decided its not worth it anymore. Enter Dana, a twenty year old college student. She is a beautiful, light-skinned, African American woman with a whole lot to love. She goes to Beverly's apartment for a foot massage, but finds a whole lot more. After an intense sexual encounter where each of them feels a deep connection, they are both afraid to open up. Will they ever admit their flaws and simply talk to each other ----- EXCERPT FROM BOOK Dana. Weve had this conversation. Dont do this to yourself. Every time you meet someone great you make up an excuse not to see them anymore. Youre afraid of being vulnerable. You end up settling for people like. . . ugh, Monica....
