Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The case is cold. All hope is lost. Suddenly, the future collides with the past. In the dead of night, teenage runaway Annabelle Brown vanishes in the rugged Blue Mountains west of Sydney, in a shroud of mystery and intrigue. Twenty-seven years later, with no body, no clues and no leads, the case remains unsolved. Then reformed Kings Cross drug dealer Antonio Ant Fitzpatrick runs into his old flame Christine Long, a prostitute turned jewellery designer for the elite, and the criminal underground drags them back to their dark pasts. Bright, young detective Louise Whadary, determined to solve this cold case, discovers some hidden clues, and their lives start to unravel as the secrets they buried come back to haunt them. As investigators close in on a murder suspect, Annabelle's family realise it's never too late to discover the truth. But will that truth ever be found? The sequel to the #1 bestselling novel Write About Me. Enthralling and emotionally and psychologically accurate. Chris Gould retired UK Detective Chief Superintendent, Child-Safe International founding chairman Powerful, fascinating, heartbreaking, insightful, compelling...
