Angels over the Rainbow This is a stage play made into a very touching story, dedicated to Elizabeth Jones, Born April 16th, 1988. She went to heaven on November 2010. A victim of Cystic Fibrosis. Elizabeth is a wonderful soul, and she is a hero of mine because she always went forward and never gave up. Earth misses her very much. Dian, Elizabeth's mother has her tucked away in her heart while she shares her with God, the angels, and heaven. Angels over the Rainbow is about three children that was struck by a drunken woman and put into comas. The children's souls are caught between staying on earth or going over the rainbow. They meet the drunken woman while they are in between deciding which way to go, she begs the children for forgiveness.
