Not illustrated. 1900 Excerpt: . were longing for something--I think they hardly knew what. Do you know? It was Jesus himself they wanted--Jesus as their Friend. They needed to come to Jesus for forgiveness, for rest, for help. Jesus knew this. He only could satisfy their souls, just as bread satisfied the hunger of their bodies. That is what he meant by the golden text, Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life. Many of those people were poor. It was hard work to always find enough to eat. They were often tired and anxious. Here was One who promised to care for them in all their troubles. Mary, can you repeat the invitation Jesus gave one day to the poor and weary people? (Come unto, etc.) To-day I want you all to learn these words of Jesus-- Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. 1 Once there was a young man who thought he would like to leave his nice home and go off to see the world. He asked his father for money, and started off. It was very different away from home. He met bad companions, and grew like them. He wasted his money, and soon was obliged to work very hard, and had not enough to eat. Then he thought of his nice home--his kind father. What a foolish boy he had been! He made up his mind to go back. How do you think that father received...
