They are the great-great grandchildren of the Seelie Fae Queen and on their human side was an ancient line of powerful witches. Their father the Vampire King is over four thousand years old. Before they were even born they were prophesied to be the end of the war between the Seelie Fae and the Vampires. The Seelie Fae Queen believes that she should rule the earth humans and all other supernatural beings should cease to exist. After, their mother died in childbirth they were raised by their grandmother, a powerful witch hidden until they were attacked as young children and separated. Michaela hid from the supernatural world living amongst humans. Micah was rescued from the Seelie Fae by his father and aunt then raised in the Vampire city of Duskvale. They are now of age and have found each other again. Along with being reunited with her brother, father, and aunt Michaela also finds her soul-half Kael. An ancient powerful vampire Kael has been hiding for two-hundred years. Forced into hiding when he was set up and to protect his family he made everyone believe he was dead. Fate brings them all together. Michaela and Kael who are bound and meant to be together for eternity must fight a war that not only threatens their lives and future but the whole supernatural and human world. Together they all must join with the Unseelie Fae and use their power and abilities to stop the Seelie Fae Queen once and for all or she will be the destruction of the world.
