We cannot escape problems between believers any more than we can between children in our own families. The Lord Jesus knew problems would exist between His children and made provision for this in His teaching in Matthew 18: 15-17. This passage shows us how to deal with the problems that arise between believers. It provides a safe way for those who have fallen to be restore and encourages the average believer to take seriously the matter of helping his or her brother and sister in a time of weakness. This book examines Jesus teaching on this subject and shows us how we can practically apply it to the situations we encounter. This is the Urdu edition of this study. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
