TO SAY NOTHING: A DIARY OF MEMORY (PAPERBACK)

Robert David Neil Hansen, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .VOLUME 1 of TO SAY NOTHING is an easygoing account of the early life of a Canadian baby-boom hippie-slacker covering the years 1968 through 1978. It's the hippie Bildungsgeschichte we've all been waiting for. There are breathtakingly dangerous childhood antics, the horrors of family and high school, and a darkly disturbing move to small-town Alberta. From there across Europe and the Middle East. In and out of college. Sex, drugs, rock n roll, and yoga. Intense but not always faithful loves, theatrical dramas, years of endless parties, a dozen jobs, dodging bullets in Mexico, good luck and bad, odd misadventures, and finally, epiphany and rehabilitation, ending with a tramp through the ashrams of California and, inevitably, a stumble along the Hippie Trail to Nepal and India. Join Neil as, in his own words, thousands of them, in his own unapologetic style, tight, direct, and mostly agenda-free (except for the Legalize Marijuana thing), he takes you gently and humorously by the hand down the path of a bright but confused and shiftless man, bugging around, allergic to work, searching for a life of ease and meaning. Anyone alive in the last half of the twentieth century will find something to laugh about-or sneer at-in Neil's adventures. And there's sexy stuff, too.
