Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Civic Co-Operation in Community Building: A Brief Manual of Community Work and Study Most of us desire to do something to make our communities better. At best voluntary efforts are limited; often they may not be planned efficiently. And yet it cannot be doubted that we can accomplish much in social welfare and service by extended efforts and efficient methods. To extend, therefore, our efforts and to direct them efficiently is the logical and earnest desire of every enthusiastic woman s club member. Every step in this direction will be welcomed by us. As one means to such an end and as an example of the sort of cooperation which we recommend, the Athens Woman s Club cooperates gladly with this class of students at the University of Georgia in presenting a little manual of civic cooperation to the public. We wish to commend it especially to the Women s Clubs in Georgia with the hope that it may offer some timely information and some suggestions of value.
