By Jule Moon

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Jule Moon is a paleontologist, an anthropologist and a psychiatric social worker. She was raised with a theatrical flair for singing, dancing, playing piano, organ and drums. She writes poetry, prose and short stories. When the seasons of Life change, you can sense the differences in the winds and the temperatures. Jule brings you her perspective of those changes. You will sing and dance, laugh and cry, be joyful and be angry. Jule's pensive moments and her rich experiences are captured in snapshots of her life. We can reflect upon them; and we can relate to them. She is a precious jewel with many sparkles. She is a delightful person who captures the spirit of humanity in ways that we can understand them. Read her book and appreciate Life in a new way. -- Roger C. Bull.
