

A Radical Consequence of Modernity

By Thomas Volk

GRIN Verlag. Paperback. Condition: New. 40 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.3in. x 0.5in. Project Report from the year 2010 in the subject Politics - International Politics - Region: Near East, Near Orient, grade: 1, 3, Middle East Technical University, language: English, abstract: This work deals with the broad topic of Political Power beyond the State and shows with the particular example of the Fethullah Gülen movement in Turkey how a non-state actor takes political power beyond the nation-state and slowly but surely transforms the identity of the Turkish Republic. A motivation to work on Fethullah Gülen as a political power beyond the state is the fact that Gülen in a survey of the British magazine on Foreign Policy in 2008 surprisingly was voted to be the most public intellectual in the world. This paper will try to evaluate how a single person could become that influential during the last decades that he is supposed to be one of the leading forces within the Turkish state at the beginning of the 21st century. What aims follow the person whose name is associated with a media empire, with business enterprises and especially a huge education network in Turkey and worldwide. While writing this...
