Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 64: December 4, 1902 His will with respect to our actions, and His purposes with respect to our end. Can it be possible that theology embraces so much and a great part of the Christian world set forth as essential to salvation only a mere passive belief in the Lord Jesus? They are schooled from their infancy to the grave; and, if one were to im portune them in the last hours of their mortal probation for light and know ledge in regard to the plan of salvation, all the information one could obtain is, after so long a schooling, believe. If asked for something more specific, they would reply In the Mystery of the Trinity. One is led to say With Isaiah the prophet: From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! What can be the cause of this leanness? The lack of divine knowledge to the extent that they will grasp a small fraction of a principle and contend they have the entire plan. Let the word of God explain. Be astonished, C ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the Lord. For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns that can hold no water (j er. 2: 12, Hence ye worship ye know not what, but the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him....
