Have you ever found yourself acting out, and then catch yourself? Is someone else pointing out to you a new concept. A new language, and then take notice of it? What has been written, is the work of three entities. I am not able to discern the actual author, of which poems I have written. I am a non-fiction author, and poetry is a new language for me. It will soon be a new language, for all of poetry. How do I write the poems, with dual applications. To provide at least two poems, for every title. The last, concluding stanza of each poem, meeting together as one. Somehow, it worked. The poems are a personal message to you, applicable to your world today. This book is truly, a manipulation of word puzzles. Two different poems are presented to...
