BELATED (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . From award-winning writer Elisabeth Russell Taylor comes a dazzling new collection of short stories. Whether examining the unspoken deals brokered in every marriage, the inherent menace of daily exchanges or the secret lives of the unattached, each of these sixteen stories sparkles with Russell Taylor's extraordinary talent. The Contract brilliantly reimagines Pushkin's Eugene Onegin; Supporting Roles reverses the client-therapist relationship; Charlotte looks at the life of a Jewish immigrant in postwar London; Les Amants is a lyrical paean to love and loss in rural France; Take Care sees the visitors getting too comfortable in a house that's not theirs; The Inquest is a whimsical feat of magical realism; while Who She? and Carter explore the mysteries and complications of identity. Here is a writer unafraid to probe the dark corners of character, who sharpens her teeth on the casual cruelties, subtle ironies and alarming contradictions of everyday life. * She is entirely original and wholly brilliant Elizabeth Young Much admired by other writers . reflective, lyrical prose Times Literary Supplement She writes brilliantly Elaine Feinstein, The Times Pillion Riders In this chilling tale of the failure of romantic love, the writing is precise, tight-knit, beautifully paced Isobel Quigley, Financial Times One of those works in which there is not a single wrong note. Best of all is the way that the author evokes the atmosphere of post-war Paris, making the city . seem vividly real, so that one longs to be there The Times Present Fears A sparkling collection of stories, each with a sting in its tail Sunday Times Witty, deadpan language with a bleakness reminiscent of Roald Dahl Ruth Padel, Daily Telegraph Taylor mingles the elegant with...
