Hunnchild Books, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Rejection, triumph, passion, love and heartache! In this book of poems, prayers, notes and quotes it s a roller coaster of emotions and God is the engineer! It s a subtle reminder that no matter what we go through, there is a testimony to every test. You can feel the warmth in your heart as every page turns. This book was inspired over 17 years ago. Everything that was inspired to be written over the years has fit perfectly in this compilation. I can t take credit for all of this, I was the vessel used but life and God definitely fostered these words. God truly determined every one of my steps. So many times my husband has said that I should do something with my writing. He has been one of my biggest fans. I have always enjoyed writing and secretly wanted to write a book but truth be told I was really afraid of possible rejection. It wasn t until I was faced with some life altering events in 2013, I decided no longer will I be concerned about other people accepting me nor pleasing them any longer. A cancer diagnosis will definitely get you to reevaluate your life s purpose and mission. I realized that I had devoted many years to people pleasing and forgot all about me. It was a bitter pill to swallow when I was diagnosed with cancer and all the people I thought would be there to support me weren t there. I realized that I expected them to respond how I would have responded had it been one of them battling a potentially fatal disease. I felt abandoned in more ways than one. My...
