

The Feast of Saint Anne: A Hudson Horror Story (Paperback)

By Robert J Stava

Deathwatch Books, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Welcome back to the village of Wyvern Falls, here along the Hudson in that sleepy region with the witching influence in the air. This second novel in the Hudson Horror Series , The Feast of Saint Anne brings you not one but four terrifying tales of the supernatural set in their yearly carnival: In The Red Baron s Daughter two boys get more history than they bargained for when a Fortune Teller draws them into the web of a monster with its origins in the deadly skies of the Western Front, circa 1918. Can CID detective John Easton save them from an even grimmer fate? With The Lonely Dancers an upcoming band finally show up for their gig - thirty years after they were killed in a tragic accident. Will local musician Nick Carr unravel this murder mystery or is he doomed to relive their tale? The third story, Lorenzo King and the Dunderberg Imp takes a new spin on an old Washington Irving classic when a failing New York media hound finds himself in the worst, and deadliest, assignment of his life....
