The Story Plant, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In 2007, three years after leaving the military, Zev Evans is a drunk - and a neurotic one at that. Living with his Sicilian mother and running figure eights through Long Island s dense suburbs, he believes that the weird thoughts that plague him - he calls them tics - might have entered his head while he was undergoing brain surgery three years earlier. In THE EYES OF A WOLF, Zev narrates, in his own bizarre yet oddly incisive style, his first case as a fixer - the person you call when you have nowhere else to turn. Carol Harris, the Army surgeon who mended Zev s shrapnel-filled skull in 2004, has abruptly taken sick leave from her neurosurgeon s duties at a Los Angeles hospital. She manages to make a desperate call to Zev, who flies west into a world he never knew existed, peopled with kidnapers, murderers, corrupt cops, and even more corrupt politicians. With the help of his new friend Eva Lopez and his old NYPD buddy, the genius hacker Johnny Scoglio, Zev sets out to save and avenge Carol . . . and to find his true calling in the process.
