Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Attu Island, the Aleutians, May 11, 1943, on the tail winds of a violent williwaw, the U.S. army and naval invasion force consisting of 15,000 American boys began the amphibious assault of Attu to drive out the Japanese garrison of a mere 2,500 still holding the island. He would become a casualty, but one who would survive. This book is his story, as told to his son, the author. It is the story of an army soldier s journey from a depression era coal region town in eastern Pennsylvania to the Aleutian Islands half a world away and back again. It is...
