

100 Locals in Rome: Reveal their favorite restaurants, coffee bars, and secret spots

By Hill Maven

Mavenhill. Hardcover. Condition: New. 180 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 8.5in. x 0.6in. We live in a world where every product or service you may want to purchase has already been reviewed online by thousands of satisfied and frustrated clients alike. From a toothbrush to a car, our consumer decisions have never been better informed. Yet, when it comes to travel and leisure in foreign destinations, there is a huge knowledge gap of how the locals live and play. In a city like Rome, renowned for breathtaking open spaces, rich culinary traditions and a formidable coffee culture, do you really want to follow the herds to the same-old tired places, infested with pretend gladiators and street vendors, to eat mediocre pastas at dingy tourist traps, and pay triple for a watery cappuccino? In this new crowd-sourced guide of the eternal city, 100 Romans share with you their secret spots, their top restaurants and their favorite bars. Savvy travelers may already know some of these recommendations, but most are surprising additions you will be hard pressed to find on the usual-suspect trip advisory sites. Packed with curated suggestions of where to hang out, eat and drink in Rome, this guide will prod you to...
