Excerpt from Our Great Commander In connection with his entrance to West Point, Grant twice changed his name. Up to that time he had been known as Hiram Ulysses, or 11. Ulysses Grant. On a trunk he was to take to West Point the maker, after the fashion of those days, formed three large initials with brass-headed nails. When he saw these, and realized what the cadets would do with the letters H. U. G. , Grant changed the order of his given names and registered at West Point as Ulysses H. Grant. Meanwhile, Congressman Hamer, in his appointment papers, had guessed at Grant's middle letter, and knowing that his mother was a Simpson made it S. and it was entered in this way on the records of the War Department. Learning of the trouble and the delay which a correction would involve, young Grant said, so let it be, and without further opposition to fate or to friends he settled down to live with the name which he was to place far up at the top among those his country delights...
