C. : Joint Committee on Taxation, 2009 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)299803475 Subject: Taxation -- Law and legislation -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Thirty percent of a taxpayers otherwise allowable modified credit is refundable. However, no portion of the modified credit is refundable if the taxpayer claiming the credit is a child to whom section 1 (g) applies for such taxable year (generally, any child under age 18 or any child under age 24 who is a student providing less than one-half of his or her own support, who has at least one living parent and does not file a joint return). In addition, the proposal requires the Secretary of the Treasury to conduct two studies and submit a report to Congress on the results of those studies within one year after the date of enactment. The first study shall examine how to coordinate the Hope and Lifetime Learning credits with the Pell grant program. The second study shall examine requiring students to perform community service as a condition of taking their tuition and related expenses into account for purposes of the Hope and Lifetime Learning credits. Effective Date The proposal is effective with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2008. 5. Temporarily allow computer technology and equipment as a qualified higher education expense for qualified tuition programs Present Law Section 529 provides specified income tax and transfer tax rules for the treatment of 12 accounts and contracts established under qualified tuition programs. A qualified tuition program is a program established and maintained by a State or agency or instrumentality thereof, or by one or more eligible educational institutions, which satisfies certain requirements and under which...
