Not everyone who says to Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. (Matthew 7: 21) This book speaks to every person who ever looked for happiness and didn't know where to turn; for every person who wanted love and never really felt it; for every person who longed for forgiveness for what they believed were unpardonable sins and didn't believe there was anyone to grant it; for every person that has wanted to go to a dark room and close the door because the world was just too much to bear. Kathleen Suzanne Turner, a writer, speaker, wife and mother lives in Georgia with her husband and step-son. She is currently working on her next non-fiction book entitled Getting to the Right Place on all the Wrong Roads. It chronicles her journey through six failed marriages, Multiple Sclerosis, multiple illnesses, rape, molestation, drug abuse, emotional abuse, adultery and estrangement from her two biological children. It is the happy ending to a life doomed to fail, if it were not for the love and forgiveness of her Savior and highest love of her life, Jesus Christ. Her life today she says is a far departure from the person I used to be. It is inspiration for any woman or man who may be struggling with a life-threatening disease, personal disappointment and/or despair in their own lives, and it is hope for anyone who is really seeking the ultimate answer to living a joyful life. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
