Hes making, I should say now, at least 500 pounds a year. That isnt much, but to have increased his income from three to five hundred a year in five years proves that he is a steady man. No one ever doubted Alfreds steadiness. Mildred, it is time to have done with those sneers. I suppose it is. I suppose what you say is right. Ive been from pillar to post and nothing has come of it. Perhaps I was only fitted for marriage after all. And for what better purpose could a woman be fitted We wont discuss that subject, Mildred answered. If Im to marry any one, as well Alfred as another. It was the deeper question that perplexed: Could she accept marriage at all And in despair she decided that things must take their chance. If she couldnt marry when it came to the point, why, she couldnt; if she married and found marriage impossible, they would have to separate. The experience might be an unpleasant one, but it could not be more unpleasant than her present life which was driving her to suicide. Marriage seemed a thing that every one must get through; one of the penalties of existence. Why it should be so she couldnt think! but it was so. Marriage was supposed to be for ever, but nothing was for ever. Even if she did marry, she felt that it would not be for ever. No; it would not be for ever. Further...
