U.S. international broadcasting is intended to communicate directly with audiences in countries with limited journalism alternatives and to inform, engage, and connect people around the world. BBG oversees two U.S. government entities- Voice of America and the Office of Cuba Broadcasting- and three nonprofit grantees that act as surrogates for local media- Middle East Broadcasting Networks, Inc.; Radio Free Asia; and Radio Free Europe/ Radio Liberty. In 2003, GAO found overlap among BBG s language services. In its strategic plan for 2012- 2016, BBG recognizes the need to reduce language service overlap. GAO was asked to review issues related to international broadcasting. This report examines the extent to which (1) BBG language services overlap with one another and (2) BBG broadcasts in the same languages as other international broadcasters. GAO reviewed laws, reports, and other documents related to U.S. international broadcasting; analyzed information on the BBG entities; and interviewed representatives of the five BBG entities and international broadcasters.
