THE RAVEN REDUX AND OTHER POEMS

Sosii Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 150 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.3in. From the author of EVERSLEEP: The Beauty of Dark Silence, comes another bone-chilling foray into modern romanticism with a gothic twist. The Raven Redux and Other Poems is a collection of dark poetry from poet and writer, Alexander Bentley. From the FOREWORD: In Edgar Allan Poes short life, he accomplished a great many things. One of his most famous works was a poem titled, The Raven. That poem consistently dominates as one of the most powerful pieces involving the macabre side of life, darkness, and the inevitability of death. Alexander Bentley created The Raven Redux and Other Poems as a nod to the legacy that Poe left behind and has created a masterpiece that reminds us about the true, often lonely and unknown thoughts about death. The entire book is an immersive journey through dying, death, and dealing with the loss of others. Alexander says poetry can penetrate the most quickly into the readers subconscious mind. A person has many barriers, emotionally and mentally. Poetry bypasses those protections and implants itself into the readers mind. This is one reason I love poetry so much. I also love that a reader can draw their own conclusions about the meaning behind the words. But it is not just the writing on the page that pulls readers into the poems that Alexander penned for this collection. The entire book, from cover to cover, is a collective experience. The words are some of the most powerful I have ever read, and yet, it does not stop there. The illustrations draw the reader even deeper, adding to the overall experience of the book. They are dark, detailed illustrations that amplify the feeling behind the words. Where Alexanders words set imaginations on fire, the...
