

Visions of A Skull

By John D. Green Jr.

Tate Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 116 pages. Dimensions: 6.9in. x 5.0in. x 0.1in. Staring into the darkness, a moment of clarity washed over, though soon broken by the sound of the approaching officer, it was long enough a moment to where I felt free. I was no longer confined by the constraints of social norm or family duties, but was as an animal running through the wilds of my own mind. My right hand had already grasped the bone handle of the bowie knife as I heard the officer close in several feet behind, slowing at his approach, and blowing his whistle once more. The rain had begun to slightly fall in large drops, as large as a fig, as I pulled the knife out and raised it to my throat. I looked up at the moonless sky and felt only the droplets of rain piercing my face and my lips. It was to be my last sensation. The year is 1847. Roland T. Smitherton, second son of an English nobleman and former clerk of accounts in his family's shipping business in London, has been charged by his father on a capital venture to acquisition land on the Mississippi...
