Excerpt from Essays on Some Disputed Questions in Modern: International Law Expedition of 1882, refers in eulogistic terms to the ably planned and well executed operations whereby our ?eet seized the Suez Canal. He then adds, The inference to Americans is obvious, that the neutrality of any canal joining the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans will be maintained, if at all, by the nation which can place and keep the strongest Ships at each extremity. No doubt the gallant Commander is right, so far as physical force is concerned; but, with regard to the legal aspect of the case, I have contended that all the states interested in the canal must concur in its neutralization, before the status of neutrality can be conferred upon it. Here again my view receives con firmation from current authority; for I see in the news papers that the International Peace and Arbitration Conference, assembled at Berne early in the present month, resolved that a guarantee of all the maritime powers was necessary in order to effect the neutralization OF interoceanic canals. I have said that the Essays are greatly amplified lectures; and this is true of all except the fifth. When I came to revise it for publication, the subject appeared so great that a treatise would be required to deal with it completely. I have therefore been content to elaborate a little more fully one or two points which were the pivots of my argument, sending the rest of the lecture to press in almost the same form as it was delivered. The more the subject is investigated, the more, I believe. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and...
