

The Wallace Family: An Album of the Roaring Twenties (Paperback)

By Clarence Robert Tower

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This coffee table book is a compilation of original photographs from a once discarded family album which was the proud possession of an American family living in the vicinity of the Texas - Oklahoma panhandle from 1921 to 1930 and a little beyond. It was purchased by the author in the 1960s at which time it was known to be an invaluable record of an American family's experiences during those years known as the Roaring Twenties. It sat in storage until the present day to be presented as a published book. A number of the photos contained notations on the reverse, providing documentation for time and locations where the photos were processed. Such provided the author with the information he needed to pin down the time span and the locations involved. In addition, an assortment of miscellaneous printed paper, including postcards and related business records, came with the album to further help piece the story together. This is no ordinary album. It contains marvelous photos of the classic automobiles of the time. It documents the family's travels from Niagara Falls...
