Excerpt: . . . in connection with certain acts of the Knabes alleged to be breaches of trust or acts of wrongdoing on their part. But their liability for these sums has never been determined, or the amount of damages sustained fixed, and they never have agreed to pay them. At the date of the assignment to Mr. Schlens the Knabes were largely indebted to him, and he is entitled to be allowed out of the net funds in the hands of the receivers, collected from the said assets the balance advanced by the Knabes and not repaid to them, or on their account, and also one-third of the surplus, in accordance with the terms of the resolution of April 29, 1910. The case will be remanded for the statement of an account in which all the set-offs, except the item of 1,981.16 with interest, will...
