Createspace, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It s most time for Paul to come home, said Mrs. Hoffman. I must be setting the table for supper. I wonder how he will like my new picture, said Jimmy, a delicate boy of eight, whose refined features, thoughtful look, and high brow showed that his mind by no means shared the weakness of his body. Though only eight years of age he already manifested a remarkable taste and talent for drawing, in which he had acquired surprising skill, considering that he had never taken lessons, but had learned all he knew from copying such pictures as fell in his way. Let me see your picture, Jimmy, said Mrs. Hoffman. Have you finished it? She came up and looked over his shoulder. He had been engaged in copying a humorous picture from the last page of Harper s Weekly. It was an ambitious attempt on the part of so young a pupil, but he had succeeded remarkably well, reproducing with close fidelity the grotesque expressions of the figures introduced in the picture. That is excellent, Jimmy, said his mother in warm commendation. The little boy looked gratified.
