

The Philosophy of Liberation: Revisiting Genuine Religious Experiences with Special Reference to Christianity, First Edition

By Cyril Desbruslais, Kuruvilla Pandikattu (Editor)

Christian World Imprints, New Delhi, 2016. Hardcover. Condition: New. xviii+196pp., This book is a philosophical look at Theology of Liberation, which involves re-thinking of the entire Christian experience from the perspective of the oppressed. The book is a radical, critical attempt at evolving a Philosophy of Liberation for Asia, in general and India, in particular. It tries to build up a down-to-earth and critico-reflective vision of reality, founded on the human person in his/her entirety that would sensitize us to oppressive and liberative understandings of man, woman, God and the world.
