Bopper s Progress (Paperback)

By John Manderino

Wundor Editions, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. American novelist John Manderino s latest work is a sparkling, hilarious novella, Bopper s Progress. Told over the course of a day in the life of Bopper, a directionless young man who has found himself on a month-long Zen Buddhist retreat, Manderino probes life s most challenging questions with sharp observations, uproarious dialogue, and a clarity of prose rarely found. Manderino lives in Maine with his wife Marie, where he teaches college writing. He has published three novels, two short story collections and a memoir with Academy Chicago. John has also written plays that have been performed at theatre festivals and other venues. A stage version of his memoir Crying at Movies was produced. Manderino s work is able to poke fun at the fear that so ably sparks our imaginations, while simultaneously revealing a shared feature of humanity that is both reassuring and haunting in its own right. - Cory Johnston, Books Editor, The Literary Review.
