Surely, where there is light, darkness is not too far away. Rhonda Wells, a well educated attorney living and practicing law in the courts of Trinidad and Tobago has never lost a case. Riding on a cloud of success she has found herself at her wits end as she comes face to face with Tom Mentor, a mysterious man who is as cold and callous as his name seems to suggest. He is about to reveal her deepest secret to the world unless there is a compromise. The courtroom of Rhonda s life is now in session. She is unable to defend herself because of the overwhelming evidence that has been laid against her. Tom had been waiting for this moment for years, a perfect candidate to carry out his bidding. In desperation, she calls on a higher power for help. What do you think the verdict should be?.
