On a night like any other night, a man climbs into bed and turns out the light. All seems quiet and calm when his bedroom door comes crashing down and a blinding light fills the room. An angel, armed and ready to fight, boldly steps in. The angel proclaims that he is to take the man to heaven for the good life that he has lived. Outside the door are pack mules, a servant and a company of armed angels. It will take fourteen mules are to carry all the man s sins to judgment. Together this team will make the journey, but the way is dangerous, and it will take three days.
